LIBELLING ROYALTY.

AN ENGLISH PAPER TO BE PROSECUTED FOR LIBEL.

Articles Affecting the Character of George IV—Has Krupp Agreed to Supply France With Guns?—He Knows a Great Deal About Germany's Artillery.

LONDON, May 20.—It is said that the charges affecting the character of the late George IV of England, to which much publicity has been given in a weekly publication which makes a habit of attacking royalty, are being examined into under the direction of the Attorney-General, with the view of prosecuting the authors should sufficient ground be discovered for such action. Heretofore the royal family has ignored all attacks, however offensive, as beneath the sovereign's dignity to notice, but certain scurrilous publications have of late taken such liberties with the name of Guelph that some action is not improbable. The libelling of the dead is an offense against English law and a prosecution could be handled with much less convenience than one involving living persons. The published statement that George IV has a living descendant is denied on high authority and is not believed. Queen Victoria has been noted for her kindness to the descendants of her uncle, William IV, and it is thought increditable that she should permit a descendant of her uncle to suffer in want. While there are undoubtedly illegitimate posterity of Geo. IV in existence, they are, it is understood, quietly taken care of in minor government offices or otherwise. No such claim, plausibly presented, would go unexamined in behalf of the royal family, and if found trustworthy the person would be taken care of, as two sinister branches are now being taken care of.

HAS EXCITED MUCH FEELING.

The story that Krupp is arming or has agreed to arm the French navy has excited as much feeling in Berlin as in Paris. While Krupp's right to supply whom he pleases with the products of his establishment is recognized, it has been supposed in Germany that he would draw the line at France, in view of the antagonism between the two nations, and certainty of war sooner or later. Krupp also has enjoyed valuable privileges at the hands of the German authorities and is acquainted with the German artillery question to a degree that makes him almost a confidential agent of the government. Much surprise is expressed that the French should have anything to do with him, in view of the terrible effect of his seige guns on the city of Paris in the Franco-Prussian war.

THE COUNTRY BEING DEPOPULATED.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says that the government is taking steps to restrain the wholesale emigration of peasants from the northern provinces of Russia to Siberia. Whole tracts are depopulated by this emigration, which is largely due to the peasants having mortgaged their lands, and being no longer able to bear the burden of paying interest are therefore removing to Siberia, in the southern portion of which fertile lands may be taken up on easy terms.

BARBAROUS TREATMENT OF WOMEN.

A letter has reached St. Petersburg, giving a deplorable account of the condition of the female convicts on the Island of Saghalien. Many of the convicts transported to that island are political prisoners brought up in refinement. The letter represents that the female convicts upon their arrival at the island are given up to the mercy of the officials, who select whom they please for themselves and apportion the remainder among the soldiers of the guard and male convicts.

HIS DEFENCE WILL BE INSANITY.

Duncan, who tried to kill his wife, brightened up considerably yesterday on being told that she was improving. He is now reticent and it is said by the advice of the counsel engaged to defend him, but the police express themselves as satisfied with the evidence in their possession and admissions already made by the prisoner. The defence is said to be insanity and a number of Duncan's friends are expected to support it.

ATTRACTING MANY VISITORS.

The German exhibition in London is attracting throngs of visitors from Germany, as well as many from all parts of Great Britain. It has already given a marked impulse to German trade in England, a fact which is not regarded with pleasure by British manufacturers

LIKE THEIR OWN LANGUAGE.

The British census office has received many complaints from Wales that the number of persons speaking Welsh has not been fully represented in the returns. The native language is a factor in places in which just now it is popular to deny any knowledge of English.

Influx of Gold.

LONDON, May 20.—It is believed that the New York gold influx for the week will be ten million dollars and then cease for a while. The Bank of England has advanced its bid price for German gold one-half penny. The Rothschilds are ready to refund £1,500,000 of gold to Russia loaned last November. It is likely no further withdrawals will take place.

Horribly Mutilated.

LONDON, May 20.—A sailor's bag, newly painted black and decorated with the British and Norwegian colors, represented as flying from crossed staffs, and bearing the initials "I.A.M.," and the name of Girvan, was to-day found floating in London dock, at Liverpool. Upon being opened the bag was found to contain a terribly mutilated corpse of a lady apparently about 15 years of age with throat cut, and both legs removed below the knees in order to make it possible of packing the body in the bag. There was also found in the bag a knife and a saw, both new and having fragments of flesh hanging to the blades. A careful examination of the condition of the body added to the appearance of the bag as well as of the instruments with which the crime was committed, shows clearly that the murder had been of a very recent date. The police authorities of Liverpool are without a clue to the identity of the murderer. A most thorough search, however, has already been instituted among the crews of the ships in the harbor and sailors' lodging houses are under close watch.

The Australian Commonwealth.

MELBOURNE, May 20.—The premiers of Victoria, New South Wales and South Australia have failed to secure the adoption of uniform action in submitting the federation proposals to the people of the colonies, and each colony will follow its own course in the matter.

OTTAWA NEWS.

Members of Privy Council Sworn in—Rifle Association Meeting.

[Special to the TIMES.]

OTTAWA, May 20.—Col. Ouimet and Mr. Kirkpatrick were sworn in to-day at 11 o'clock as members of the Privy Council, but not of the Cabinet.

The annual meeting of the Dominion Rifle Association took place to day, President Kirkpatrick occupied the chair. All the old officers including the president, were re-elected. Lord Stanley was present and addressed the meeting.

In appointing Bergeron deputy speaker another prelate has been rewarded.

The Quebec harbor commission papers, called for by the committee of privileges and elections in the Langevin-McGreevy scandal case, will be here to-night. The public works department has not yet forwarded the papers called for, and the general opinion of Conservatives is, that in not doing so Langevin is prejudicing his own case, no matter what results.

A ministerial caucus was held this forenoon. The principal question discussed was what attitude the Government intended taking in the Cameron's bill, and the repeal of the Dominion franchise, which is expected to come up in the House to-day. After considerable talk it was decided to oppose the bill. This was done on motion of Sir John Macdonald, who was the only minister to speak. He gave as his reason for this action that if the bill was repealed it would necessitate a new election, as the electorate would be completely changed.

Jamieson's prohibition resolution was afterwards discussed, but no decision was arrived at, and another caucus will be called for this purpose. Contrary to expectation, the Langevin-McGreevy scandal was not touched.

THE SEALING DIFFICULTY.

Mr. Blaine Does Not Relish Any Interference by the President.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Contrary to the general expectation, no action was taken at the cabinet meeting to-day on the subject of the seal fisheries controversy. The representatives of the North American Commercial Company, which has the contract for the killing of seals, are convinced that President Harrison means to insist on a closed season in accordance with the desire of the English Government and that a proclamation to that effect will soon be issued. In this matter the President finds himself in direct antagonism to the members of his cabinet, all of whom are supporting the contention of Secretary Blaine that the British proposition for a closed season in waters wholly under the control of the United States is an audacious one. Mr. Blaine is very much in earnest in his effort to persuade the President to see the wisdom of ignoring the demands of the British Minister and allowing the Commercial Company to have the benefit of its contract. S. B. Elkins very recently presented to Secretary Foster a legal argument in behalf of Mr. Blaine's side of the case, and this document was handed to President Harrison yesterday. Subsequently the agent of the Commercial Company had a talk with the President and endeavored to convince him that there was no reason why the United States government should not follow whatever policy was agreeable to it with reference to the seal fisheries without any regard to the minister of England. The President did not say what he would do, but the representative of the Commercial Company was not much encouraged by his visit to the White House. The delay of the President in acting in the matter is undoubtedly due to the illness of Mr Blaine. The Secretary is very much interested in the controversy and does not relish being checkmated by the President after he had arranged his plans and allowed his policy to become known. The President will, of course, defer announcing his decision until he confers with Mr. Blaine and acquaints him with the orders that he will give to Secretary Foster to govern that official in arranging the details of the suspension of the fishing privileges. Just now many persons are engaged in predicting that a row must occur between President Harrison and Secretary Blaine before the way can be cleared for the latter to become a Presidential candidate, and perhaps the seal fisheries controversy is the rock upon which they will split.

Property Sale at Mission.

MISSION, May 20.—Mission City sales were a success; six car loads of people came from Vancouver and a large crowd came by boat from Westminster. There were three bands, a free lunch and everything went off smooth. About $20,000 worth of property was sold in five hours. The new town looks well.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

A CITIZEN OF FAIRHAVEN TAKES TOO MUCH MORPHINE

Two Trains Crash Together on a Sharp Curve—A Dangerous Place for Locomotives in California—Secretary Blaine is all Right.

FAIRHAVEN, May 19.—David Cox, of Sehome, died here over a lodging house over the People's restaurant last night from the effects of morphine taken with suicidal intent, as appeared from a letter left by him indicating his wishes as to the disposal of his prop rty, which is considerable, as he owned valuable real estate here and in Sehome, and also, it is said, in Blaine, Tacoma, Steilacom and Spokane, besides an interest in the Mammoth mine and other promising claims in the Cœur d'Alenes. He was formerly in the saloon business at Delta, Idaho, and later at the same business at Wallace, Idaho, from which place he came to the Sound two years ago. His bank book, in which he wrote his wishes in regard to his property, shows a deposit of $2710 in the Whatcom County Bank June 1, and no checks are recorded against it.

The letter written in the bank book is addressed to "Mr. death," and directs that half of his property be given to his wife and half to his sister, Stella Cox, 155 McAdemy avenue, Wilkesbarre, Pa., to care for his father. He was about 40 years old and was married about three years ago in Idaho to a woman considerably older than he, who now resides in Sehome and with whom he did not live happily.

Nearly a Fatal Accident.

TEHACHAPI, Cal., May 20.—Three engines are in the ditch two miles west of here. This morning about 7 o'clock the helper engineer returned to the summit and stopped at Tehachapi to register before going down the mountain toward Bakersfield. His orders were to run to Bakersfield, avoiding the regular trains, and he evidently thought he could reach Girard station, which is six miles west, before the regular passenger train, but this he failed to do and just before reaching tunnel 15 he met the train on a sharp curve and crashed into them. Neither train nor engine were running at a very high rate of speed, which prevented any more serious results. No one was killed but all the engineers and firemen were hurt more or less. All three engines are dead as the shock burst all their tanks. The wrecking train has left Mojave and will clear the track in about 9 hours. No coaches left the track. This is the third wreck on the same spot and all are noted for lucky escapes.

Mr. Blaine Only Has the Gout.

NEW YORK, May 20. — Secretary Blaine is feeling very well this morning. The papers say the only trouble is gout, which prevents him from getting on his shoes, otherwise he would be out. Dr. Dennis has not called upon him since yesterday morning and is not expected to-day. The Chinese minister was among Mr. Blain's visitors.

NANAIMO NEWS.

Satisfaction at the Verdict of the Grand Jury in the Intimidation Cases.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

NANAIMO, May 20.—The decision of the Grand jury in returning "no bill" against the sixteen miners implicated in the Wellington intimidation case has caused much satisfaction in this city. It was felt here after the first trial that the petit jury, before Chief Justice Begbie, did the men an injustice in finding them guilty on that occasion, and caused a somewhat bitter feeling to exist among the mining population of this city. On the return of the men to-day they were warmly received and will be tendered a formal reception this evening at the Somerset house, Wellington.

DEATH OF T. E. PECK.

The death of T. E. Peck took place at his residence last evening after a protracted illness of five months. The deceased was well known by everybody accustomed to visit Nanaimo. He had the name of being the most liberal hearted man in the city, and was deserving of the name of "hale, hearty good fellow." He has been many years a resident of this city, and at one time was the collector of customs, after which he went into the saloon business; he possessed considerable property. For many years to come the now residents of this city will tell many anecdotes of the deceased and his peculiarities. When Bengough visited this city, Mr. Peck was the subject of a cartoon, and when it was put up by auction it brought twice the price of any other, which goes to show how much he was thought of.

AIDS TO NAVIGATION.

Mr. Anderson Returns from his Trip to the North—The Results.

Wm. P. Anderson, of the Marine Department, Ottawa, who came here to investigate the requests of the Board of Trade for buoys, beacons and lights, on the northern coast, returned at noon to-day from his trip north, having left the Douglas at Nanaimo. He went as far north as Fort Simpson, Queen Charlotte Island, Masset and Skidegate.

He had red spar buoys placed on Nimkish Shoal, Ledge Point, shoal off Point McNeil, all in Broughton Strait. A middle ground buoy was placed on Doll Patch, Seaforth Channel; a large black one was placed on Dores Point reef south of Tugwell Island, entrance to Metlakathla harbor and three small buoys in Metlakathla harbor. Buoys were also placed on the following places: Rocks at the entrance to Ecstall Inlet, Skeena River; Hodgson Reef, Chatham Sound; Sparrow Hawk Rock, entrance to Port Simpson, and Dead Tree Point, about the ¾ of a mile from Bar Rock entrance to Skidegate.

The other requests of the board will be reported upon in an extensive report that Mr. Anderson intends to forward to the Marine Department. Before going east he will attend to the requests for aids to navigation on the Fraser and Vancouver harbor.

HEBREW LADIES' BAZAAR

Held in Philharmonic Hall To-day—Lots of Fancy Articles.

Once again Philharmonic Hall is the scene of a merry gathering many of which have marked its history. This time it is the members of the Hebrew ladies association that have transformed the place from an empty hall into one filled with goods of all descriptions and good feeling. All morning the ladies were hard at work and they were rewarded for their labors by being crowned with success, the hall looking as well as ever it has done. On entering the entrance of the hall from the street the first thing that attracts the visitor's, or at least the visitor attracts is a busy throng of young ladies, some with boquets for sale, and others anxious to show them to seats in the lunch room. Both parties of young ladies were well patronized, the boquets selling readily to those who were not backward in trying to improve themselves with a button-hole bouquet before entering the presence of the fair waiters who were busily at work around the tables. Large numbers of business men lunched there, and they could not have been sorry for it, as the tables were loaded down with tempting victuals. Mrs. Strouss, Mrs. Morse, Mrs. Moss, and Mrs. Salmon were the lunch committee, and they were ably assisted by Miss E. Beaven, Mrs. G. D. F. Simpson, Miss K. Denny, Miss L. Sylvester, Miss C. Phillips, Mrs. P. A. Phillips, Mrs. Salmon, Mrs Cook and Miss Goldsmith. The main hall, however, was the chief point of interest for the ladies and they kept coming and going all afternoon. On either side of the entrance were tables that reminded the young men that they would not be allowed to forget those whom they were escorting and also to remind all that they were not going to be let go thirsty. These were the soda water and ice cream stands, the former presided over by Mrs. J. Isaacs and Miss Goldsmith, and the latter by Mrs. G. Leiser, Mrs. Cook, and Miss Cook. On the right of the Hall were numerous booths, the first being a table full of plain and useful articles, which were being disposed of to the numerous buyers by Mrs. E. Frank and Mrs. Gudean. The first fancy goods table was in charge of Mrs. B. Levy, assisted by Miss Dawson and Miss Anderson. Mrs. Strouss and Mrs. Morse were at the next table, which was the chief attraction for the children, it being well supplied with toys and small fancy articles. The candy stand, which occupied a prominent place across the head of the hall, was a busy place, Mrs. Close, Miss C. Phillips, Mrs. Aaronson, Mrs. Cohen, and Miss Goldsmith being kept busy supplying the wants of their many customers. The flower stand was in charge of Mrs. J. H. Frank. On the left hand side of the hall was another fancy goods table, presided over by Mrs. Hartman, Miss L. Sylvester and Mrs. Simpson. Adjoining this table was also another plain goods booth where Mrs. Moss and Mrs. Cook were attending. Mrs. H. Levy and Mrs. I. Braverman were in charge of a table containing a splendid supply of Japanese goods. Mrs. Lyons was telling fortunes and Miss Burnes, Miss Madigan and Miss Lizzie Sylvester were looking after the ever interesting part of a bazaar the post office.

The ladies had not forgotten to have a few raffles either and in the crowd of visitors one could not but discern a number of young ladies with paper and pencil anxiously looking for names to fill up the blank numbers on their lists. A beautiful large doll was the principal article raffled. It was handsomely dressed and well deserved its title "the bride." Other pretty things were also raffled.

The bazaar has so far been well attended, but the crowd will make their appearance this evening as is usual at an affair of the kind. A concert this evening will wind up the first bazaar held in this city by the Hebrew Ladies' Association. The proceeds will be devoted towards the Temple Emanu-el.

The officers of the Association are: President, Mrs. P. A. Phillips; Vice-President, Mrs. H. Bornstein; Secretary, Mrs. H. E. Levy, and Treasurer, Mrs. I. Braverman.

BOSTON May 20.—The Boston News Bureau says it is reported on high authority that the Bank of England has notified the guarantors of the Baring fund, that it desires them to form a cash syndicate. This is regarded as a measure by the bank to strengthen its cash reserves.

SCALPED INDIANS.

They Are Regarded as "Bad Medicine" by Their Tribes.

A young squaw fleeing from the advancing Sioux reached the inclosure pursued by half a score of painted devils, their hands already reeking with Pawnee gore, writes a New York Tribune correspondent. Seeing escape impossible, she fell flat on the ground and pulled her blanket over her head to lose sight of the descending blow. It came from a tomahawk that glanced off her skull without penetrating it. The whites were within a few rods, firing as they ran, and one of the Sioux braves fell, shot dead, beside the prostrate woman. Another, however, jerked the blanket from her bleeding head, and with haste born of fear cut around and cruelly lifted her scalp, she conscious all the time, but never uttering a sound. The savage fled with his bloody trophy to rejoin his comrades. The troops came to the rescue of the sadly outnumbered Pawnees, and together they succeeded in putting the Sioux to rout. When the panic subsided the wounded squaw was borne to the mission hospital and her injuries dressed. In spite of the scalping she bade fair to recover. Strange to relate, however, her friends showed great reluctance to her receiving medical treatment, claiming that according to all Indian precept and example a scalped person should be dead, and her recovery would only bring "bad medicine" to her tribe. The woman acquiesced in this opinion, and expressed perfect willingness to be sacrificed to the ancient customs. The next morning the squaw's cot was empty and the patient nowhere to be found.

Two days later some troopers hunting a stray horse on the river bank, miles away, were startled to hear groans coming from a neighboring thicket. Thinking that some wounded Sioux had been abandoned to die, they cautiously approached. There, buried all but her face in the drifting sand, was the scalped squaw, still alive and conscious. They dug her out and brought her back to the mission, thoroughly cured of her willingness to die. She told how she had been stolen from the hospital by her own family and buried by the river bank. She now wanted to live, and a close watch was kept to prevent her being again offered as a victim to savage superstition. Once afterward, when walking in the yard, she was spirited away by the Pawnees and hidden in a tepee, that when night fell she might be buried more securely. Again she was restored to the mission, and, upon strong threats of military vengeance should any thing occur to her in future, the poor creature was allowed by her tribe to live out the remainder of her days.

SELFISH BRITONS.

They Are the Only People Who Do Not Assist Their Race.

It is a peculiar fact, well known and frequently commented upon by emigration officials, that the English immigrants who land in New York are the only ones who, if they are in want or trouble, are not looked after by their countrymen, affirms the New York Star. The Castle Garden Mission and the Irish Immigration Society have a watchful eye and a helping hand for every Irish man, woman or child who steps ashore at the barge office. The German Immigrant Society is active in behalf of the new-comers from the Fatherland, and, like the French society and the Italian home organization, have offices on State street, from which they carefully watch their incoming countrymen. The Hebrew Charity Association never lets one of the faith leave the pier without knowing his condition and destination, whether he comes from far-off Poland or the nearer continental countries. But the English immigrant must go to strangers for help or welcome. The wealthy English organization, the Society of St. George, pays no attention to immigrants, and, indeed, I believe makes it a point in their by-laws to have nothing to do with new-comers, though watchful enough of the interests of English residents of the city.

The Indian's Gratitude.

You have heard of the never-dying gratitude of the Indian, writes Teresa H. Dean in the Chicago Herald,—of how they never forget a favor. Well, they never do forget a favor. If one is unfortunate enough to give one of them a cigarette—if they love nothing else they love cigarettes—in the morning, from that time until the sun sets he returns every half hour for more. He not only comes back himself, but he brings with him all the other members of the misjudged tribe that chance to be in the neighborhood. As beggars they are most supreme. The pride that their admirers trot out as symbolic of their nobility never interferes with their pleading for pennies, nickels, dimes, tobacco or any thing else. And pride never causes them to hesitate in helping themselves if their entreaties are ignored.

Lugubrious Playbills.

Playbills nowadays are occasionally turned to strange uses. The margins of the programme of one of the most popular suburban pantomime houses near London were found to be illustrated with a woodcut picture of a funeral procession approaching the gates of a cemetery. Beneath this in conspicuous type was an advertisement announcing that "Messrs. —— and —— furnish funerals to suit all classes in town and country on economic principles." This jarring note upon the festive spirit of the occasion concluded with the lugubrious words: "Lead, oak, or elm coffins, plumes, velvet palls and every descriptions of fitting of superior classes."

Red Tape in France.

It took a village in the department of Drome, France, two years to get permission from the Government at Paris to introduce a water supply. The matter was passed about from one official to another and samples of water had to be analyzed, the council of health consulted, and various other requisites attended to, all of which took a good deal of time.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

A Car Laden With Dynamite Goes up and Thirty Men Blown to Atoms.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., May 20.—A car laden with dynamite to be used in blasting along the Hudson River Railroad suddenly exploded a few miles below here this morning wrecking everything in the vicinity, tearing up all the tracks of the road and blowing to atoms 30 men. Some were hurled to a great distance into the river. The engineer and fireman of the train were blown with the tender of the locomotive into the river. All traffic of the Hudson River Railway is stopped. The shock of the explosion was felt for miles in all directions and it is impossible to indicate the extent of the damage. The load of dynamite was on a flat car in the construction train and was to be used in building a third track. This was the cause of the disaster. The bodies of eight Italians and two Americans were picked up and carried to the station here. A large number of people were injured. It is impossible to tell how the accident originated.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Items of Interest From Eastern Cities and Towns.

The benchers of the Ontario law society have elected Hon. Edward Blake president.

Dorenwend's hair and fancy goods store, Toronto, was damaged by fire to the extent of $2000. Several inmates were nearly suffocated before they could be rescued.

The family of John Cope, of Tilsonburg, has been poisoned by eating toadstool mushrooms. Maggie, six years old, died from the effects of the poisoning. The rest of the family are out of danger.

The marriage of Miss Benson, daughter of Judge Benson, to Edward E., second son of Hon. Edward Blake, which takes place at St. John's church, Port Hope, to-day, is causing a flutter of excitement in social circles. A large number of prominent guests from all over the Province are expected.

Frank Smith and partners are still in possession of the street railway and began selling tickets. It is evident that they expected to control it for some time. The city made a motion in court this morning, for leave to take possession of its property by force, if necessary. The motion will be argued to-morrow.

THEORY OF A CHILIAN.

The Itata is Safely Proceeding to Her Destination in Chili.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—Resident Chilians continue to ridicule the absurd conjectures on foot concerning the cruise of the Itata. In the first place, it is said by those who ought to know, that the Itata has no known reason for going to Acapulco, as she had ample coal when she left San Diego to take her to any port in Chili. If she should go to Acapulco it would be a surprise to such observers, for she would only be inviting capture by such a course, and that is precisely what she is supposed to be trying to evade. As a matter of fact she had on board 800 tons of coal when she left San Diego. Regarding her coaling at San Diego, it is said the coal was of the same nature as if the Esmeralda had coaled at Acapulco. The Mexican government has refused to permit the Esmeralda to coal at Mexican ports. This similarity of procedure may have been overlooked.

"The Itata," said an intelligent Chili, "is going along toward Chili as fast as she can. She may be intercepted by the San Francisco or the Baltimore, but I hardly think that she can be overtaken now by the Charleston. The Itate had a start of something like 1000 miles before the Charleston was under way. Now the Charleston has been compelled to make another stop for coal. All this time the Itata has been proceeding. I don't know what condition her bottom is in, but it is absurd to class her as a seventy-knot steamer, as she has been described. She is able to average 12 knots if she is in fairly good condition, and if her bottom is clean she can be forced up to 16 knots by the expenditure of sufficient coal. My theory is that the Esmeralda actually seen off San Diego, as reported; that she waited outside to see what success the Itata would have in securing coal there; that it became evident she (the Itata) signaled to the Esmeralda what happened in San Diego harbor and that forthwith the Esmeralda started off at top speed, very likely for Acapulco for coal. If she took the arms from the Itata it was probably an afterthought. Why should the master of the Itata know the Charleston is after him? I don't believe the master of the Itata knows yet that he is pursued. The Charleston has not seen the Itata and the Itata has not put in anywhere to get information. There was reason enough why the Itata should steam directly to Chili without taking into consideration the chase of the Charleston, of which she could not have known. You will recollect that the chase was not really ordered till the Itata was well out at sea and far beyond the reach of any communication from shore.

Burdock Blood Bitters

BANISHES BAD BLOOD.

Bad Blood is responsible for all the Boils, Blotches, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases, Humors and Disfiguring Rashes that are so prevalent, especially in spring. There is a NATURAL FOE TO BAD BLOOD called Burdock Blood Bitters which always conquers, never fails and is recommended by thousands. It searches out and removes all impurities from the smallest pimple to the worst scrofulous sore. In Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Shingles, Tetter, etc., its effects are wonderful.

WHAT THEY SAY.

Two of my children had large sores on their bodies caused by poorness of the blood. They were completely cured by one bottle of B. B. B. MRS. J. PINEL, London East, Ont.

About a year ago I got a running abscess on my neck which made me very weak. B. B. B. cured it and I am strong again. MRS. GEO. LEDINGHAM, Montefiore, Man.

A Faithful Friend.

SIRS,—I have great faith in your Burdock Blood Bitters, and can recommend it for most anything. Two years ago I was troubled with an ulcer on my ankle; having used B. B. B. for bad blood I procured a bottle, and a box of Burdock Healing Ointment; after using three bottles and three boxes I was completely cured and can recommend it everywhere. Yours truly, MRS. WM. V. BOYD, Brantford, Ont.

WHITE ROCK, B. C.

This Townsite is situated on Semiahmoo Bay, and is the only deep water seaport between the International Bounday Line and Vancouver, B.C. It will probably be the Mainland starting-point of the Victoria, Saanich & New Westminster Railway. It is now the outlet for the finest agricultural district in British Columbia.

The C.P.R. has made a survey of a line from Vancouver direct to this point. The Royal City Planing Mills Company has built a substantial wharf here, and has established a lumber yard, which supplies the farmers of this district. A handsome Hotel has been erected and building is going on rapidly. Several influential and far-sighted orporations have acquired large tracts of land surrounding this Townsite.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS
OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW, SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

GILMORE AND McCANDLESS

CLOTHIERS & HATTERS

SUITS TO ORDER

CHEAPER THAN EVER.

Since the formation of a union amongst the tailors in Victoria prices for clothing have advanced to such an extent that people are sending East for their suits. And we don't blame them, either, if they can save from $10 to $20 a suit. We pay union prices simply because we have to; not that we consider it right.

We were paying our men the same wages before union prices were enforced that we paid them ten years ago, when we received from ten to twenty per cent. more for our suits.

We have from ten to fifteen thousand dollars invested in tailoring, and we propose to turn it over at least twice a year, regardless of profits. To do this we will make suits cheaper than we did before we paid high prices for making up. Good Tweed and Serge Suits, $25.

Irish Tweeds, $27, $28, $30 and $32. If any other tailor in town will prove that these goods are not genuine Irish Tweeds we will donate a Thousand Dollars to any charitable institution that he may name.

Black worsted suits $40. You will get the same goods for $48 or $50 elsewhere. We intend to make a specialty of tweed suits for $30; regular price is $35 to $40. We have the store for our other business; it costs us nothing for the tailoring department; we have the stock; we have a first-class cutter, and we have capital enough to run it if we don't make a cent. So now is the time to get cheap suits to order.

We are going through the stock marking everything down. Don't take everything for granted. See our new schedule of prices.

TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS TO VANITY.

Not more than a moon ago, when Victoria's representatives started for Ottawa, the Colonist, as though experiencing serious misgivings of the failure of their mission, threw an old boot of good luck after them in the shape of an editorial admonishing the Government to appropriate liberally for public improvements in and about Victoria. Victoria, said the Colonist in effect, has been loyal. For all that she has been eating expensive Yankee mutton for years, she has never faltered in her allegiance to the grand principles of National Policy. Solid for the red parlor, show your appreciation of it, Sir JOHN, by giving Victoria a good long pull at the pap bottle. How has Sir JOHN responded to this appeal? He has given Victoria $6000 for harbor improvements, a sum, by the way, which would scarcely keep a dredger in fuel for a month, while he has given Colonel PRIOR a drill shed. We say "Colonel PRIOR a drill shed" because we assume that Sir JOHN has acted upon the advice of our representative, whose philosophy is, of course, "in time of peace prepare for war." In plain English, we look upon this drill shed appropriation as an appropriation to Col. PRIOR's vanity and Mr. EARLE's inertia. The Dominion Government never appropriated $20,000 to vanity, and only $6000 to utilitarianism, except with the consent of the representatives aforesaid. No wonder the Colonist is sore. No wonder that it claims this morning that "Victoria is treated as if it were an insignificant town in some out of the way county of Ontario." The trouble is not that Victoria is insignificant, but that her representatives are valuinert, mere hangers-on to Tory coat-tails. No use to reproach the Government. The Government is blameless. The representatives of Victoria are the ones whom the Colonist should haul over the coals.

THE STORY OF MANIPUR.

The story of the massacre of Manipur indicates an extraordinary fatuity on the part of the English contingent. In the first place treachery was contemplated. The Senaputty was to be invited to a "durbar," and at its conclusion he was to be seized and held prisoner. "Diplomatic or military casuistry," says the London Times, "may hold such a stratagem justifiable when it succeeds; but in this case it neither commanded nor deserved success." In the meantime, the Senaputty, warned by a telegram from Calcutta (for it seems the authorities had failed to keep their own counsel), and warned by the disposition of the British forces, feigned sickness, absented himself from the durbar, escaped from his own house to the strongly defended palace of the Rajah, and thus completely frustrated the clumsy attempt at surprise. "At this point," observes the Times," "a careful and complete revision of the whole enterprise was evidently called for." The cat was out of the bag, the British were outnumbered twenty to one, and further their supply of ammunition was only 40 rounds to the man. But the revision of the enterprise was not considered. On the contrary the Senaputty was requested to give himself up, or, as the Times puts it, to the man who had just escaped from the noose the request was made that he pull it over his head. This, of course the Senaputty refused to do, and the Sepoys were sent to do it for him. Then the fighting began. The forty rounds of ammunition soon dwindled down to fifteen. And here again, the Times observes, the occasion had surely come "for men with common sense and military knowledge to take stock of their position. With fifteen rounds of ammunition in reserve they might have effected their retreat in good order. But no! The struggle was renewed, and we know the rest. Says the Times, commenting on this miserable fiasco:

Altogether it is a deplorable business, in which one looks in vain for any redeeming feature save the stolid endurance which Englishmen never fail to display in desperate plights, and which they have proved themselves able to teach to less tenacious races. The second expedition has, of course, been ably planned and admirably executed; but it has come too late. A flourishing little State has been crushed, a fairly good native Government has been swept away, we shall be feared in Manipur for many a day, but scarcely trusted or loved, and we have now on hand the reorganization of the chaos we have made.

CHASE OF THE ITATA.

The pursuit of the Itata by the Charleston seems likely to terminate in an inglorious fiasco. In the first place, the Itata had a thousand miles the start; secondly, as she had plenty of coal aboard, the moment she left San Diego she pointed her nose in the direction of Chili. During this time what was the Charleston doing? She steams leisurely down to Acapulco and exchanges compliments with the officers of the Esmeralda. The true inwardness of the business seems to be, the United States Government has no use for the Itata. Having sent the Charleston in nominal pursuit of her it hopes to escape paying indemnity in the event of another Geneva arbitration.

CHARLTON' SUNDAY BILL.

Mr. CHARLTON has introduced his bill to provide for "the better observance of the Lord's day." This bill was before the House of Commons last year. It prohibits:

1. All work excepting household offices of daily necessity, or work of charity.

2. The sale, or exposure for sale, of goods, chattels or other personal proprety or real estate.

3. Horse-racing, foot-racing, cockfighting, dog-fighting, noisy public games.

4. Tippling in inns or houses of public entertainment, revelling, brawling, or profane language in the streets or open air.

5. Hunting or shooting game, wild bird or animal, or discharge of firearms, etc.

6. Fishing of all kinds.

7. Publishing a Sunday newspaper, and selling the same.

8. Canals and post-offices will be closed.

9. Railway trains are prohibited, with certain reservations, from running on Sundays, and excursions by steamboats, plying for hire, are also declared illegal.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Ex-Speakers KIRKPATRICK and OUIMET will, it is said, be satisfied with the empty honor of being sworn in members of the Privy Council, not of the Cabinet. It is perhaps the only thing that could be done, as there are not enough portfolios to go round.

It seems odd that the postage on a letter from Canada to the United States should be 3 cents, while that on a letter from the United States to Canada is 2 cents; but, this being so, is it not at all odd that Canadians in many border towns, when they have a large number of letters to send to points in this country, mail them across the line, thus depriving our Postoffice Department of any return at all for the carriage of the missives. Our postal revenues would not suffer by the adoption of a 2 cent rate for this continent.—Mail.

That Barbarous Potlach.

That barbarous Indian potlach country, at which dogs were said have been eaten, turns out to have been nothing of the sort. Mr. A. W. Vowell, Indian Commissioner, is in receipt of a letter on the subject from Rev. J. Spencer, the missionary, who was on the spot. He writes from Port Essington that thousands of dollars' worth of goods were given away, while several canoes and trunks were burned to show the owners' disregard for worldly wealth. But although there were many people present, and so much excitement prevailed, there was not the slightest trouble. There is no mention of dog eating, on the contrary, a feeling of satisfaction and contentment among the people generally is reported. The present most of the young people from the interior are at the several canneries.

General Committee Meeting.

The final meeting of the general celebration committee will be held in the city hall to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, when some important business awaits transaction. The report of the finance committee and other matters will be arranged.

Tried to Kill Himself.

The five Chinamen with their luggage, etc., were taken to Darcey Island this morning by the Alert. One of the number, not caring to go, attempted to cut his throat with a razor but was stopped by Supt. Sheppard. By this time the unfortunates will be settled in their new home.

The P. O. Country Home.

The sub-committee of the Protestant Orphanage met again this morning, and selected two or three of the proffered sites at Cadboro Bay. These will be submitted to a meeting of the general committee with the conditions attaching to them, when a definite selection will be made.

Broke Her Arm.

At the James Bay ward school, the verandah in front of the school building is fully three feet from the ground. With small children playing around this makes a rather dangerous place. This morning during recess Ethel Winkel, aged seven years, daughter of Mr. Fred Winkel, fell off the verandah and broke her arm. The break was set by Dr. Hall and the little one is improving.

Donations to the Library.

A few more handsome donations and the city will be able to boast of one of the best public libraries on the coast. Already there is a good stock of literature in the library but as the population increases the demand for books also increases. The latest donation that the librarian begs to acknowledge with thanks is Mr. R. P. Rithet's annual donation of $50 and a donation of $40 from Mr. R. Finlayson.

Port Angeles' Dam.

Mr. Stamford, the engineer of the Port Angeles water works, has designed a dam for them, which is an ingenious idea. It is 570 feet wide, 40 feet thick and 20 feet high, and is constructed with a series of tables so that in the event of a heavy rush of water, in place of having a dead fall of twenty feet, it it is broken up thus preventing any under-tow. Work will be commenced on its construction at once.

Died in London.

Charles John Dodd, the eldest son of the late Capt. Charles J. Dodd, chief factor of the Hudson Bay Co., died in London on April 19, 1891, aged 43 years. Mr. Dodd was born in Victoria and Mr. Roderick Finlayson Dood, who was injured in the Labish accident last November, and who died of his injuries, was a younger brother. Mr. Charles Dodd was for many years in the employ of the Cassell Co., publishers, London. He leaves a wife and several children.

St. John's Church Organ.

Mr. Goodwin has almost restored St. John's church to its normal neatness and order. His work of erecting the new organ has been an arduous one, but he will have the privilege of putting up the first three bank organ in the city, and also the best and handsomest instrument at present here. It is expected that the whole will be ready for next Sunday's service, and that the first air to be played upon it will be the one most fitting on the natal day of Victoria. God Save the Queen.

A Unique Curio.

The body of Baron Drais, who is supposed by some to have invented the bicycle, and who died over thirty years ago, was removed the other day from an obscure resting-place, and given burial among the tombs of illustrious Germans at Carlsruhe. A funeral cortege of about four hundred persons of both sexes, mounted on bicycles of all classes, and wearing the uniform of their respective clubs, followed the body to the grave.

Another Yacht.

Mr. H. R. Foot has finished building a handsome yacht for E. McDougall. She is 22 feet over all, and 6 feet beam. She is built on lines for speed as well as pleasure, and will be among the "slickest" of the fleet. The ceremony of launching and christening will probably be performed to-morrow.

The Amateurs' Cup.

Messrs. Davidson Bros. have on view the cup to be given by Mr. Davies of the Victoria Gardens. It is a handsome piece of work, on either side of which is a pair of oars crossed, and on the lid is a man in rowing costume holding up an oar. The cup is gold lined. It is to go to the amateur single scull race this year.

A Painful Injury.

Willie Braden, whose name is inseparably connected with the Victoria Athletic club's exhibition team, had the misfortune to cut the top of his finger off yesterday. He was cutting some pipe when the vice he was using slipped, with the result of nipping off a piece of one of his fingers. It is expected that it will not altogether interfere with his playing on the 24th.

Incoming Passengers.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Passengers by the Walla Walla for Victoria. Mrs. L. M. Dentler and daughter, Miss O. Dentler, J. F. Chapman, Miss L. Phillips, J. McGovern, Mr. Holloway, J. F. Scovil and wife, W. G. Lassen, Mrs A. P. Greyton, Mrs. A. Allen, Miss Dalby, Miss Cornell, Eleanor Bartlett, H. Cox and wife, W. J. Barnard, J. S. Gray, A. Coventing, Wm. P. Rathburn.

Bad Weather Outside.

Capt. Charles Spring returned with the sloop Annie from the West coast to-day, reporting a continuance of the bad weather along the coast, and a poor catch among the sealers. He brought down Capt. McLean, of the schooner Favorite, with him. Captain McLean has had another attack, which incapacitates him from continuing his command.

The Douglas Boys Did It.

Steamer Sir James Douglas was at Metlakahtla when the fire occurred and worked like Trojans to prevent serious damage. Indeed, it was mainly through their exertions that the entire town was not destroyed. A shed of oil and other inflammable material was in the centre of the fire almost, and by their pulling it down and getting the oil away in time, general destruction was avoided. Mr. Todd's House was also destroyed.

Free Importation of Sheep.

A gentleman speaking of the requests now before parliament for the free importation of sheep for breeding purposes, said this morning that the fairest way to act in this matter would be to take the duty off the importion of ewes for say three months. This not only would not give one or two parties an exclusive and unfair privilege, but would give all farmers an opportunity of getting up their stocks, if they had run down. Not only that, it would not be discriminating between farmers for breeding purposes and butchers who get it to kill for meat.

To Welcome Them Home.

Archdeacon Scriven and wife, who have been spending a few months in England, are expected home on Sunday, and are to receive a welcome at the opening of the new St. James Church Sunday School, on the 29th inst. The ladies of the sewing society will hold a sale of useful and fancy work during the afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock. The new hall is a large one, but the ladies intend to fill it up with the pretty articles for which they are famous. In the evening, between 6 and 7:30 o'clock a grand tea will be served, after which a first-class musical entertainment will be held.

The Fireworks Display.

The fireworks display from the firm of Hand & Co., Hamilton, Ont., are so well known that comment on those to take place here on the 25th under the superintendance of Mr. Richard Bowden, is unnecessary. The following is the order of the display, commencing with illuminations: Welcome, lance piece; sparkling glory, device piece; wheels, Victoria star, pyramid, square and compass, Japanese fan, bombardment between ships, gunboats, forts, etc, God save the Queen, lance piece. Ariel pieces: Pigeons, shells of different sizes, mines, tourhillions, rockets, balloons with fireworks attached, balloons of animal nature.

There is no Police Magistrate.

The city is without a police magistrate. An act passed at the past session of Parliament made it imperative for a police magistrate to be a justice of the peace, and as Hon. A. N. Richards is not one he has been forced to resign. He may be appointed one, and if so of course he will continue in his position. The trouble seems to be that he does not seem to care to be appointed a J.P. for the Province, as it would increase his work. For instance, if a provincial case was called, he would be called upon to occupy the provincial police court bench, which might at times interfere with his practice. It is probable, however, that the matter will be arranged amicably. Wm. Dalby, J.P., acted this morning.

A Friendly Acknowledgement.

The first city to acknowledge the invitation of the City Council, to be present during the coming celebration is Tacoma. The following letter was received from there by City Clerk Dowler:

TACOMA, WASH., May 18, 1891.

SIR,—I have been instructed by the Mayor and City Council to acknowledge the reception of and thank you for your very kind invitation to be present in Victoria upon the occasion of the celebration of the birthday of the illustrious Sovereign whom Britains and Americans delight to honor and after whom your City has been named.

Business engagements may prevent the gentlemen from attending in a body, yet it is more than probable that individual members may do themselves the honor to visit your city unofficially.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) GEO. HASKIN,
Clerk of the Council.

Donald Dowalb.

Says an American paper, speaking of Donald Downie's illustrated lectures, he took his audience last evening through the "Land of Brown Heath and Shaggy Wood," with which he is perfectly familiar, historically, geographically and poetically. Scott and Burns seemed our traveling companions. Mary, Queen of Scots, became a purer and a softer character under the study of her accomplishments, and her courageous martyr-like death. We rode with Tam O'Shanter from Ayr past "auld kirk alloway," where the witches pursued him until the bridge of Doon is thrown upon the scene just as Tam reaches it in Burn's stirring lines, which Mr. Downie recites with a perfect Scotch pathos.

What a Change.

Those who have not called upon Captain Mike, commodore of the C.P.N. Company's Spratt's wharf fleet during the last few weeks, will receive a great surprise in a few days. Lying at Mike's dock is the steamer Yosemite, the same old boat that was placed there a month ago, but what a change has been wrought. Instead of the rusty looking boat that she was, the Yosemite is now one of the brightest boats in the harbor. She has been painted from stem to stern inside and out and everything made to look neat and clean. New carpets and linoleums have been laid throughout the cabins so that those who go to Port Angeles next Sunday will be able to travel comfortably.

The New Steamer Nearing Completion.

The little steamer Kildonen was launched at midnight by Mr. W. J. Stevens, her builder. She slid off the ways most gracefully and now shows her beauty lying in the water alongside Spratt's wharf. Mr. Stevens received the contract for her construction from Messrs. Richardson & Heathorn but these gentlemen sold her to Messrs. Sinclair, Gamble & Stevens, of this city, before she was finished. Mr. St. John, agent for Doty & Co., engine builders of Toronto, is in the city putting the engine and boiler in her. She will be used for general towing purposes.

The other boat, which, as announced in these columns some time ago, is being built by Mr. Stevens, is also for Messrs. Sinclair, Gamble & Stevens, will now be pushed to completed. She will be built the same as the Kildonen but four feet longer.

Boilers and engines are being placed in Turner, Beeton & Co.'s new steamer. They were built in Toronto by Doty & Company.

An Adventurous Experience.

Robert Piercy is a young hunter of the schooner May Bell, and he arrived down from Juneau by the Alaska boat on Monday with a story of adventure and hardship that many an old salt hasn't got to tell. It seems he and two boat men strayed from the schooner off Cape Fairweather about the latter part of April, and after some days made land about 250 miles from Juneau. Thence they pulled along the coast to that city all the time experiencing a dead calm. The stock of provisions, only sufficient at first to last a few hours, soon gave out, and they were forced to fall back on raw seal, rather tough fodder, and ducks, which tasted of fish and salt water. In this way they managed to subsist till they reached Juneau, thoroughly exhausted and broken down, after fifteen days' starvation and exposure. The names of the other two men are Oliver Hauge and Elie Sinclair. The latter two are still at Juneau, but Piercy sold his gun and three seal skins in order to raise funds to reach Victoria.

Circumstantial Evidence.

A correspondent of the Albany Law Journal tells of a lawyer who acquitted his client, charged with killing his cousin while he was lying upon a lounge about 3 p.m., by firing a 32-calibre ball from a small rifle through his brain. The evidence was circumstantial, the accused, who had an interest of $100,000 in the death of his cousin, being alone in the house with him at the time. The death occurred in June, 1887. In August, 1890, the attorney had the rifle loaded and hung on the wall, a white sheet with the form of a man marked on it, and a heavy cut-glass pitcher of water placed on the shelf above. The tempature was 90 degrees in the shade, one of the hottest days of the year. The pitcher of water acted as a sun glass, and the hot rays of the sun shining through the water were refracted directly on the cartridge chamber of the rifle. Eight witnesses were in the room, and a few minutes after 3 o'clock a puff and a report and the ball struck the outlined form back of the ear and the theory of circumstantial evidence was exploded.

"Lend Me Your Wife."

This is a somewhat big demand on the friendship of any man, but Mr. Harry A. Smith as "Dick Easily" in the farce "Lend Me Your Wife," made it last night, and not only so, but borrowed the baby and the entire household. The complications that arose out of the transaction created side-splitting fun and laughter that lasted from the beginning to the end. Take any member of Mr. Roland Reed's comedy company and there is little fault to be found; as a whole they are superb, while with Mr. Roland Reed they are irresistable. Mr. Reed as "Captain Tarbox" is immense, a whole dozen comedies in himself. He is an inexhaustible well-spring of fun, a comedian whose ridiculousnesses are side-splitting yet thoroughly refined; he is gentlemanly without being snobbish; broad and funny without ever approaching vulgarity. It is a long time since Victoria laughed so heartily, and if Mr. Reed and his accomplished company ever return, a generous welcome will be accorded them. Miss Isadore Rush is a charming lady, full of fun and a born comedian. She dressed very tastefully last evening, and looked well wearing on her breast a bunch of Victoria blacks. Miss Nellie Free is a young lady who is steadily winning success in her profession by careful, conscientious and natural acting, and Mrs. Mary Meyers has the happy faculty of pleasing everyone.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE

The Case Against Wellington Miners Dismissed by the Grand Jury.

COURT OF ASSIZE.

In the case of Regina vs. Bates et al, the Grand Jury having been out all the afternoon, returned to court and reported that eight were in favor of finding a true bill and seven were for throwing out the indictment.

The court decided that this amounted to "no bill" and in consequence the accused was discharged.

The following is the presentment brought in by the Grand Jury later on: "We, the Grand Jury, now in session, beg to call the attention of Your Lordship to the great loss of life and property that may occur at any time from the storing of a large quantity of powder in the magazine situate in Beacon Hill Park, and earnestly recommend its removal before any serious consequences occur. We would also suggest to Your Lordship the advisability of some change in the system of selecting Grand and Special Juries, as under the existing system certain parties are being continually summoned while others escape altogether or nearly so.

E. B. CARMICHAEL,
Foreman.

His Lordship having thanked the Grand Jury, discharged them, and announced that the duties of the term had been completed.

"Mount DeCosmos."

A very clear and detailed photographic copy of the map of Vancouver Island and adjacent Mainland coast, prepared by Dr. Robert Brown, the explorer, has been kindly laid on our table by an esteemed citizen. In looking close to home the press man was surprised to see on the north shore of the Nanaimo Lakes a mountain 4100 feet high, named after that well known light in the political history of this Province—the Hon. Amor DeCosmos. Those who were with us in the early and pioneer struggles of the sixties and the seventies, will well remember the prominent position taken by Hon. Mr. DeCosmos in the then public affairs. He was, and is yet, an enthusiast for the advancement and progression of British Columbia, and his many admirers will be glad to learn that in Nanaimo District he has been honored by having a high mountain named after him. On Bute Inlet appears the Cosmos Heights, respectively 5600, 5665 and 5755 feet high, and the prominent Amor Point, both named after the hon. gentleman, who is now residing in Victoria—his home for the last third of a century. It must be pleasant to know that when the present generation passes entirely away, and new actors appear on life's fitful scene, that the name of Hon. Amor DeCosmos will not pass away like a fleeting shadow, but be handed down as a beacon light to posterity.—Nanaimo Free Press, May 15.

He Was a Kicker.

Kickers innumerable have been heard and read of. There is the common everyday kicker, who kicks because he can't help it, the "Arizona kicker," who kicks on principle, and the lazy tramp who had a fortune left him and kicked because he found it too hard work to spend it, but the latest and greatest kicker on record is a gray horse of ex-alderman Goodacre's, which last evening attempted to kick the cart to which he was attached, in pieces. He was being driven down Pandora street, but when just opposite the new Methodist church he stopped short and began to get in a most vigorous kick (possibly because he had not been given a complimentary ticket to the tea meeting) and in spite of the coaxing manner and soft speeches of the driver, who caressed him gently with a blacksnake, he kicked himself free from the cart, and then started to make holes in the atmosphere. After the horse had partly got rid of his harness, which seemingly eased his mind, the driver succeeded in getting him again hitched to the cart, having been slightly assisted and greatly hindered by numerous onlookers, a quantity of rope also being brought into requisition to hold the harness together. Then with two men in the cart and one holding the horse by the bridle, he was started off again. By this time a great crowd had gathered, and the horse, evidently thinking he was on exhibition, started in to kick again. All the way down the street the mob of people followed, the horse stopping every few yards to saw the air for the edification of the spectators, and the last seen of the brute by the reporter as the crowd turned down Douglas street were two hind feet feeling for the moon.

Schooner Premier Wrecked—Loss by Wreck of Dashing Wave Nearly $30,000.

The United States revenue cutter Bear, Capt. M. H. Healy, arrived in Seattle from Alaska Monday morning. Lieut. John Dennett gave the following information in regard to the trip of the Bear:

"We have been gone from Seattle about 38 days, and in that time have traveled over 5000 miles. The purpose of the cruise was principally to assist the civil Government in capturing criminals and obtaining witnesses in criminal cases. The witnesses are scattered over a wide extent of territory and usually in sparsely-settled districts and it is next to impossible for the Government authorities there to bring them together. There are now six murder cases before the court at Sitka, the principal one of which is the trial of Clark for the murder of Hemingway last year. We gathered up at various points a number of witnesses for this case, among them Clark's wife.

"At Little Squaw Harbor we secured 'Russian Pete,' who is charged with the murder of one Miller. The murder appears to have resulted from a drunken row in which Miller attempted to assault Pete's wife, and in the melee that followed Pete was severely beaten and bruised, and in retaliation shot Miller dead.

"We were also instructed to examine into the condition of the natives, and to ascertain whether any of the seal pirates were landing on the islands. Some of the pirates claimed to have landed and made large catches, but from what we could learn there was no truth whatever in these statements. They undoubtedly went to Behring sea for that purpose, and were unwilling to confess that they had been balked. The sealing season is somewhat late this year, and few if any seals have arrived at the islands.

"At Pirate Cove we picked up the crew of the wrecked schooner Premier, which went aground near Usonoy. The schooner was engaged in moving a large cannery, and had a crew of fishermen aboard. Another vessel carried a large number of Chinamen and cans, and has proceeded to the point of destination without any knowledge that the Premier has been lost. This will, of course, entail a useless expense on the company, as they are likely to remain there idle for some time before learning of the disaster. Sixteen of the wrecked fishermen came down with us.

"The Dashing Wave, laden with cannery supplies for Lynn & Huff, was wrecked at Pavloff Cold Harbor. The crew was saved, but the loss of the vessel and cargo will probably amount to $15,000 or $20,000. We found the fishermen out of food, and after relieving them took one of their number to Unga for further supplies.

"We fell in with the brig Alexander at Unalaska. Capt. Shorey was lying there with a broken leg, having been thrown across the deck in a storm. Our surgeon attended him, and in a few days the brig put to sea again.

"We also met the schooners Unga, Francis Alice and John Hancock, all cod fishing. The Francis Alice had a catch of 35,000 and the John Hancock 40,000. We also fell in with the sealing schooner Umbrina, with 215 skins, and the E. B. Marvin with 312 skins.

"We spoke the whaling bark Temeriano on Fairweather ground. She reported having caught no whales as yet.

"Governor Knapp, District Attorney Johnson and United States Marshall Kostrometonoff made the trip with us. We met with no accident, and the only unfortunate occurrence was that after we had reached Unga we found that one of the principal witnesses wanted was at Anchor Cove on Ikatok peninsula, and we were obliged to retrace our course for several hundred miles.

"Besides the shipwrecked fishermen we also brought down United States Commissioner Farpley and bride. They were married at Sitka and are now en route to Unalaska, being compelled to come here, as there is no direct communication between Sitka and Unalaska. —Post-Intelligencer.

INAUGURAL TEA MEETING.

Held Last Evening by the Ladies of the Methodist Church.

After the meeting held about two weeks ago by the lady members of the Pandora Avenue Methodist Church, at which they promised to do all they could for the first tea meeting, that event could not but meet with success. It was held last evening in the schoolroom of the new church, and by the appearance of the vast crowd present by a few minutes past 6, it was evident that the majority had deserted their own supper tables to enjoy that provided by the ladies. Those who arrived too early were given a chance to go over and admire the beauty of the new edifice in which they were waiting for admittance to the schoolroom where the tables were set. When the doors were opened it only took a moment to fill the 200 chairs around the tables that were laden with appetizing victuals that could do nothing but please. As soon as one set of 200 had finished, the busy ladies and gents who volunteered to wait on the visitors, were at work putting the tables in readiness for the next lot. From 6 till 9 o'clock this was continued, the ladies not being given a moment's rest during those hours. To say that all were pleased is only putting it mildly, they were thoroughly satisfied.

After the tea meeting had been concluded those present entered the church, where Rev. Coverdale Watson occupied the chair surrounded by a number of clergymen of other denominations and those who were present for the conference. Revs. Watson, Macleod, Rugg, Starr and Dr. Sutherland spoke, complimenting the congregation on the enterprise that they had displayed in building the new church. Dr. Carmen was present but did not speak. The meeting was brought to an end by singing the national anthem and the benediction.

How it is Built.

Apropos of the opening and dedication of the Pandora street Methodist Church a short description of the masonry work of the building will not be out of place, at least so thought a TIMES reporter, and so yesterday morning a representative of that paper sauntered over to the church and introduced himself to Mr. F. M. Adams, who has the work in charge. He found that gentleman hard at work putting on the finishing touches to the stone work, but when told what the reporter had come for, he kindly proceeded to show him around the building and explain what had been done.

In the first place, the building is of Greco-Roman architecture, and it may here be explained for the benefit of those who have found fault with the structure—saying "it was too squatty" in appearance—that in this particular the architect and builder have only followed out the peculiarity of the Roman style of architecture. The foundations are laid deep, and are four feet six inches at the base. The walls are solid masonry, averaging over two feet in thickness, are built of free stone and faced with what is known as the "hammer-dressed" finish, which gives the building a fine, bold, rugged appearance. There are thirteen turrets, nine small on the building proper and four larger ones on the tower. These turrets, although adding greatly to the appearance of the church, are quite as useful as ornamental, they forming a solid rest for the copen at the gables. The whole masonry work is of that solid, massive kind that is meant to endure and of which the city will be as proud a hundred years hence as now. It may be said that although a great part of the masonary work was done in a bad time of the year, the foundations have never shown the least sign of settling, and what is still more rare there has never been the slightest accident during the building operations, which reflects creditably on the great care and good judgment exercised by the contractor, Mr. H. H. McDonald and his able superintendent, Mr. F. M. Adams.

Port Moody's Bid.

Excitement regarding the proposed university site is still very strong at Port Moody. A member of the staff who was over there last Saturday interviewed a number of the residents on the matter and found them all extremely keen to get the seat of learning located right at the statutory terminus, or somewhere near the head of Burrard Inlet. Several of them were willing to give tracts of land varying from six lots up to 25, right in the town, while others not so favorably situated, would not hesitate at a few acres. Mr. Murray is prepared to make a very liberal offer. He is ready to present the university site committee with a choice block of property situated to the east of his residence on Rocky Point, and containing in all some 25 full-sized lots. There is good water, pure air, aquatic facilities unexcelled, pleasant walks, nearness to the towns of Westminster and Vancouver, and a record of immunity from disease not held by any town in the world of the same age—not a death since the town was founded. These and count'ess other advantages the Port Moody people point to with pride, and challenge any place in British Columbia to get up as good a list. It is an undoubted fact that Port Moody is prepared to make land concessions of very great value. The quiet little town has been all torn up over the prospects of having the university founded there, and it is certain that with the advantages the place has and the real estate gifts the people are ready to make, Port Moody must occupy no mean place in the calculations of the arbiters of this question.

CYCLISTS ABUSING A PRIVILEGE.

TO THE EDITOR:—Bicycle riders obtained a concession from the city to ride on the sidewalks within certain limits, but only when the roads were unrideable in those vicinities. It seems that this privilege is being shamefully abused, riders dashing along and frightening (in some cases injuring) pedestrians, particularly ladies, and caring nothing for what they do.

The best way to stop this is to withdraw the privilege altogether, which I am glad to see the city has done, and punish indiscriminately, all found breaking the law. A privilege abused is an insult to those giving it. It was very kind of the city to extend it; it was very silly of the cyclists to abuse it.

A CITY CYCLIST.

FILLING UP THE WASTE PLACES.

TO THE EDITOR:—The best means to be adopted to settle the new districts of our country have been discussed lately in the papers, some recommending to clear land for settlers and making it a charge on the land. This, in my opinion, would be a failure, and while I do not care to discuss this matter at any length, I will as briefly as possible state what I consider the duty of the Government for the time being ought to be in respect to the encouragement of settlers. To keep unoccupied and unimproved lands open for settlement at a nominal price, say one dollar per acre, to be sold upon conditions of actual and permanent settlement, and not more than 160 acres to any one person, and I think the half of that quantity would be better, and while I take no objection to the people's representatives granting corporations or companies assistance to make improvements; such as railways, they in my opinion make a vital mistake when they set apart the public lands for this purpose. Better far give a money bonus. Companies hold land without taxation, and as settlers come in the land rises in value and so does the price. As a rule rich men do not seek new districts in which to make a home. It is the poor man who cannot buy the high priced land. Hence new settlements, where the land is high priced, settle slowly. For this reason it is a great mistake for the Government to sell the public domain to speculators, or give it as a bonus to companies, for by this means it is placed beyond the reach of the only man who will settle upon it and improve it, viz., the poor man When I say poor man I wish to be understood as meaning the man who has little capital besides his labor, and who is anxious to have a home for himself, and I hold that it is in the best interests of society that this class should have the public lands placed within their reach. Let our laws be so framed that the tiller of the land shall be the owner thereof. Unused land should remain in the hands of the Government and should pass to no person but for use and in reasonable quantity. The money obtained for land should be used to make roads and public improvements. The land speculator is a curse to the country and a Government that allows and encourages that sort of thing is no better. Respectfully, R. PINKERTON.

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

April showers may be the forerunner of May flowers and they are also certain to bring with them cold in the head, which if neglected, develops into catarrh, perhaps into consumption and death. Nasal Balm never fails to give instant relief, and will permanently cure the worst case of catarrh if faithfully used. Sold by all dealers.

Of One Opinion—Victoria Recognizes True Merit.

During the visit of Professor Seward, the celebrated optician of New York, last fall, a large number of prominent ladies and gentlemen, not only of Victoria, but surrounding cities, called and had glasses adjusted to their eyesight, and now since Professor Seward's return, he finds, as he expected, the universal expression to be, "His work is the best that has ever been accomplished in Victoria." Professor Seward has been especially successful in correcting the most difficult of defective sight, also of adjusting cataract glasses and fitting artificial eyes. His stay in Victoria will only be of short duration, as he has promised on this trip to stop at Nanaimo, Vancouver and New Westminster, and at Seattle and Tacoma on the Sound, which he could not do on the last trip on account of limited time. This will be the last trip to the Pacific coast. A record of the examination and test of each patron is kept on file, and the glasses can be duplicated at any future time by addressing Prof. F. D. Seward, P.O. box 3537, New York. Office hours while in Victoria, 9 a.m to 5 p.m. Cor. Yates and Douglas streets, over drug store.

N.B.—Prof. Seward makes no charge for preliminary examination.

The cheapest line of boots and shoes in the city are to be found at Carmichael & Patterson's, 35 Johnson street.

Purify The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is hereditary and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. In its preparation, its medicinal merit, and the wonderful cures it accomplishes Hood's Sarsaparilla is Peculiar to Itself. Thousands testify to its success, and the best advertising Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of its army of friends. Every testimonial we publish, and every statement we make on behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla may be relied upon as strictly true in every respect.

Your Blood

If you need a good blood purifier or building up medicine, be sure to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Further information and statements of cures sent free to all who address us as below.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.

The Ministerial Session Commences This Morning—Business Transacted.

The fifth annual meeting of the British Columbia Methodist Conference began its sittings this morning in the Pandora Avenue Methodist Church.

None but the ministerial members of the Conference were present as in accordance with the new disciplinary rule, the business of the first days' sessions is of a nature interesting only to ministers. All the ministers in full orders throughout the Conference were present, and in addition to these, Rev. A. Carmen, D.D., General Superintendent of the Methodist Church.

The Conference opened at 9:15, Rev. C. Bryant, President, in the chair. After singing hymn 753, a portion of Scripture was read and half an hour spent in devotional exercises and prayer.

The President then called Rev. Dr. Carman to the chair and committed to him the rule of this the first session of the Conference. Dr. Carman expressed his gratitude at being present at this meeting. He had long wished for this privilege, had purposed before to come, and now is thankful that he is here. He said when he came out doors this morning and looked upon the mountains and and caught the fragrance of the air he felt like asking "is this heaven?" He thoroughly enjoyed the British Columbia climate.

In introducing the business of the ministerial session he spoke of the meaning of this session, its separate purpose, guarded it from the danger of extreme church claims, defined high churchism and gave his ideas of it. He spoke of the work of the church, its prospects and its power. He defined the triple elements of power as follows: 1st, the man's own individual power, his personality, the man himself. The nearest thing to man is man himself. We are brethren. He asked them to look at the history of the world and see what personality has done. There is such a thing as human power and if a man has a soul in him capable of work let him throw himself into co-operation with God and develop what God has given him. And yet this is not the great and final and full power. The next one is the Book. Note the difference in these elements of power. This word is a living power and the wickedest man in the world can take it and read it and get converted without any ordained preachers being there at all. There is man power, there is word power, and third there is Holy Ghost power and this works only through man power and word power. He asked his people to keep away from fanaticism. And with these three combinations of power the church can conquer British Columbia for Christ.

The roll of Conference was then called and the following reverend gentlemen answered to their names: C. Watson, J. H. White, Jos. Hall, W. W. Baer, A. E. Green, R. J. Irwin, C. Bryant, E. Robson, J. F. Betts, R. R. Maitland, J. A. Wood, Jas. Calvert, Jas. Turner, T. W. Hall, J. P. Bowell, M. J. Stevens, T. Crosby, A. N. Miller, D. Jennings, Geo. F. Hopkins, W. H. Pierce, C. Ladner, C. M. Tate.

The report on transfers was then received and it conveyed the information that two ministers have been transferred into this Conference and added to its membership. Rev. J. D. P. Knox, from the Bay of Quinte Conference, and Rev. T. D. Pierson from the Niagara Conference. The former of these is a probationer and the latter a superannuated minister.

The next item of business was "the examination of ministerial character." No challenges as to the character of the ministers were put forward.

Rev. M. J. Stevens applied for his credentials and asked leave to withdraw from the work of the Methodist Church. The reasons given by Rev. Mr. Stevens for his resignation were perfectly satisfactory and on motion the credentials granted.

The following probations were continued on trial in the work of our church:

Fourth year standing, W. D. Misner.

Two year standing, J. E. Gardner, C. H. M. Sutherland, G. H. Morden, J. C. Spencer, R. B. Beairs, J. P. Hicks.

The New Westminster Chinese Mission, Q.O.B., recommended that Mr. Chan Sing Kai be received on probation as a candidate for our Chinese ministry. A recommendation of the same nature came from the Q.O.B. of the Chinese mission at Vancouver with reference to Mr. Sin Yick Pang. Both were referred to a special committee in view of the peculiarities of the case.

The president of the Conference received permission from the conference to employ the following young men as preachers during the coming year: J. H. Martin, William Cashmore, William Halpenny, S. W. Fallis, A. J. Garbel, F. V. Smith, A. K. Sharp, H. E. Baily, B.A., J. W. Dickinson, T. E. Archer.

Application will be made for the transfer of those who shall be received by their respective conferences and the others will be employed by the chair.

On motion the conference adjourned until 2 o'clock.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Cleanliness Next to Godliness.

The supreme thing in a house after a good kitchen and a good cook, is a good, well lighted bath-room, with a large, roomy bath. Porcelain baths are becoming very popular just now, and the solid handsome ones manufactured by Twyford in England, and imported only by Braden & Stamford, Fort street, are the best article. Quite a number have found their way into the fine new homes now being built.

Victoria's Paradise.

In a place like Victoria, surrounded by pleasure resorts, there cannot but be a favorite one. Victoria Gardens have, under the present capable management, won the title, and it is the intention of the proprietor to maintain it. This season, and particularly during the coming celebrations, a special effort will be made to entertain both visitors and residents of Victoria: a first-class table will be kept, and only first-class arrangements generally will be observed. No games of chance whatever will be tolerated, the chief object of Mr. and Mrs. Davies being to ensure the perfect enjoyment of their patrons, who can roam at will through the delightful grounds, or fish in the quiet waters of the Arm; while those trippingly inclined can avail themselves of the spacious dancing hall.

DIED.

ATKINS—At Colwood on the 19th instant, Sarah, the beloved wife of Thos. Atkins, a native of England, aged 71 years.

The funeral will take place on Thursday at 1 o'clock from the family residence, Goldstream Road and at 3 o'clock from Christ Church Cathedral. Friends are invited to attend.

Salmon, the segar man, has a sockeye salmon flying from a flagpole for a sign. The idea is unique and appropriate.
